The Annual POLIS Conference: A mobility event like no other!

The Annual POLIS Conference is Europe's leading sustainable urban mobility event, providing an opportunity for cities and regions and other stakeholders to showcase their transport achievements to a large audience of mobility experts, practitioners, and decision-makers from both the public and private sectors.

After a record-breaking edition in 2023, the POLIS Team, Conference host Baden-Württemberg and co-host Karlsruhe are happy to welcome you to another fantastic Conference on 27 and 28 November 2024.

Networking Opportunities

We give you the opportunity to connect with over 900 transport innovation professionals from cities and regions, as well as other public and private sector entities

High-Profile Speakers

We reach out to ministers, deputy mayors, European Commissioners, and thought leaders from international organisations, academia, and the industry to engage with you

Focus on Sustainable Transport

We address pressing issues in the transport sector and foster discussions on innovative sustainable mobility solutions, emphasising European, urban, and regional policy dimensions

Rich and Varied Programme

We combine inspiring high-level plenaries with in-depth technical parallel sessions on innovative approaches and best practices in sustainable transport

Baden-Württemberg
MINISTRY OF TRANSPORT

Karlsruhe

Who hosts #POLIS24: A region, for the first time!

Meet our host: The Region of Baden-Württemberg

Baden-Württemberg, also known as 'THE LÄND', is delighted to be the first region to host the Annual POLIS Conference. As a long-standing member of POLIS, the region has set ambitious goals, targeting a 55% reduction in emissions from the transport sector by 2030 and striving for carbon neutrality.

Moreover, the Ministry of Transport is implementing concrete measures to reduce car traffic and expand public transport options. It has also invested in innovative cross-border mobility solutions, such as the MobiDatra BW platform.

Besides urban innovations, #POLIS24 will also be an opportunity for Baden-Württemberg to highlight the approach 'Ortsmitte' to rural areas and city surroundings as well as the illustrious sustainable mobility examples of some of its main cities, such as Stuttgart, Heidelberg, and its Annual POLIS Conference 2024's co-host, Karlsruhe.

Meet our co-host: The City of Karlsruhe

Karlsruhe is renowned for the 'Karlsruhe Model,' featuring a tram-train system, for its dedicated autonomous driving test area and its strong expertise in digital infrastructure.

The city has also earned a reputation as one of the most bike-friendly cities in Europe and has claimed the title of 'Car-sharing Capital of Germany.'

About our Venue: Karlsruhe Trade Fair Centre

Nestled in the vibrant heart of Karlsruhe, the Karlsruhe Trade Fair Centre (Messe Karlsruhe) will serve as the venue of the upcoming Annual POLIS Conference 2024.

Featuring four equally spacious exhibition halls, a grand entrance hall, and a lush green inner area, Messe Karlsruhe provides the perfect backdrop for #POLIS24. What's more, the outdoor area, set to undergo expansion in 2024, offers even more versatility with its sprawling 105,000 m² of exhibition space.

Equipped with state-of-the-art infrastructure, the venue is ready to accommodate our rich programme and offer essential amenities to all participants!

About POLIS:

A network for sustainable mobility

POLIS is the leading network of European cities and regions working together to develop innovative technologies and policies for local transport.

Since 1989, European local and regional authorities have been working together within POLIS to promote sustainable mobility through the deployment of innovative transport solutions.

Exchange of knowledge

POLIS enhances local transport by fostering knowledge exchange among European local and regional authorities and facilitating dialogue between these authorities and various mobility stakeholders including industry, research centres, universities, and NGOs.

Access to European research and innovation

POLIS promotes collaboration and partnerships throughout Europe by helping its members gain access to European research and innovation funding and results.

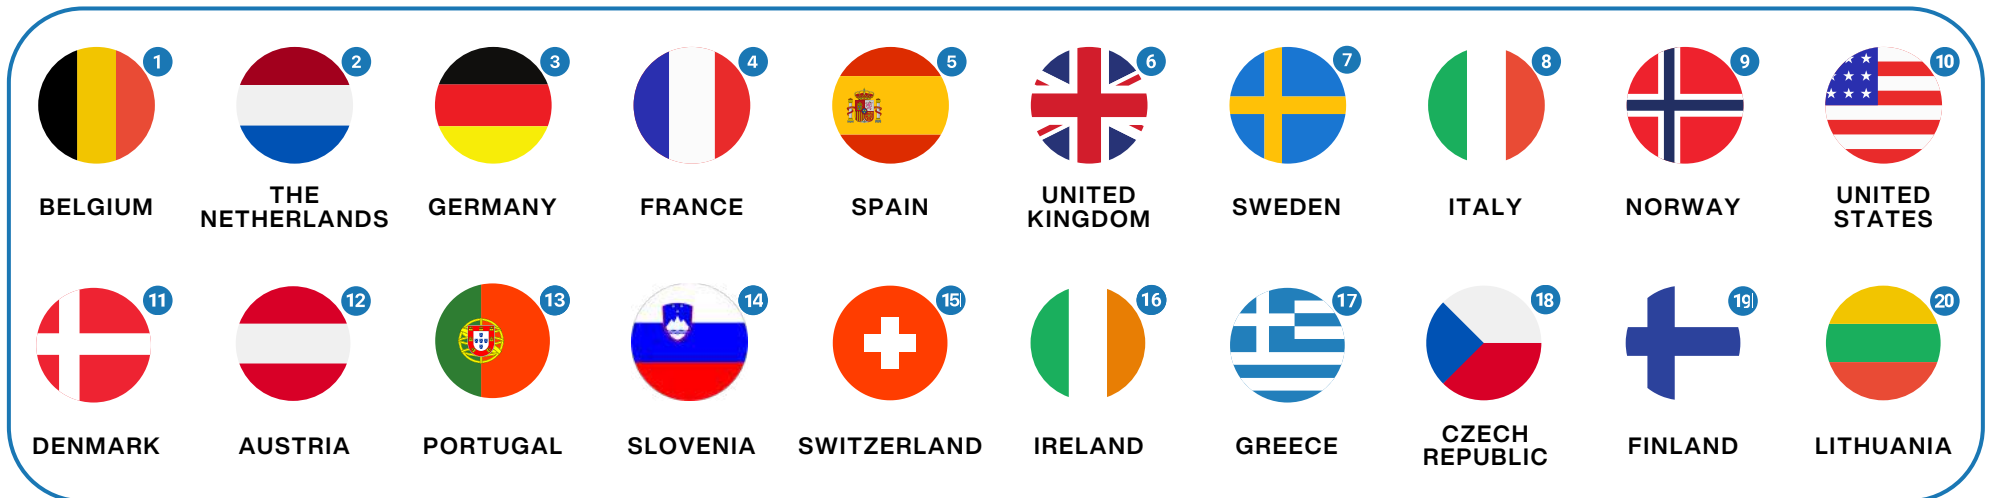

Go-to European Network for urban mobility

POLIS equips decision-makers with the information and tools needed to achieve sustainable mobility. This is facilitated through regular meetings of the POLIS Political Group, and fostering a dialogue with European institutions.
